

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Lead Audio Visual Technician
Department: Integration
Reports to: Project Manager
Employment Class: Full-Time
Pay Type: Hourly, Non-Exempt
Pay Range: $20.00 to $35.00, depending on experience

SUMMARY

The Lead Audio Visual Technician is responsible for performing assembly and installation of electronic equipment and system wiring as directed and specified in the project documentation which may include, but not limited to, rack assembly; pulling, labeling, terminating and testing structured cabling of cat5/6, video, RGB, HDMI, DVI and audio cables; and installing audio/video conferencing equipment, distributed audio, digital signage, sound reinforcement, video projection, control systems and flat panel and projection screen mounting.

Additionally, you will be responsible for reading and understanding assigned project documentation and determining if additional information is required. Informing the Project Manager of any problems and concerns with assigned projects, maintaining updated as-built drawings and documentation for assigned projects, maintaining accurate inventory of parts and responsible for reporting daily time and activity to the Project Manager.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIRED COMPETENCIES

To perform this job satisfactorily, an individual must be able to perform each essential duty satisfactorily and in a timely manner. You must also:

- Be Washington State (06) Limited Energy (Low Voltage) Journeyman Licensed
- Take ownership and responsibility of workmanship while being supported by an engineering and project management team
- Have a pleasant personality, neat appearance, and the ability to deal professionally with clients and coworkers
- Have a clean driving record, valid driver's license and be insurable
- Have a willingness and ability to climb ladders and scaffolding and operate power tools
- Be willing to work evening and weekends from time to time and work out of town travel, as necessary
- Have time management skills, be reliable and honest
- Have excellent communication and computer skills

You must have a general understanding of, or experience with one or more of these areas of expertise:

- Computer networking
- Structured cabling, grounding, equipment rack fabrications, termination, and calibration of audio video equipment
- Commercial construction environments
- Soldering and mechanical terminations

BENEFITS

- Paid time off and holiday pay
- Health insurance
- 401k
- Employee purchase program

SUPERVISORY EXPERIENCE

This job has no supervisory responsibilities

ACCOUNTABILITY

The AV Technician will be accountable to the Project Manager. Secondary accountability will be to the other management team members, employees, and customers of the company.

REQUIRED EXPERIENCE

- Washington State (06) Limited Energy (Low Voltage) Journeyman Licensed
- 3-5 years working experience
- 3-5 years of either networking, cabling, electrical, A/V or construction experience, preferably in a project-based organization
- High school diploma or GED equivalent

CERTIFICATES, LICENSES, REGISTRATIONS

- Washington State (06) Limited Energy (Low Voltage) Journeyman Licensed
- Valid Driver's License
- CTS and other industry certification a plus

PHYSICAL, MENTAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL REQUIREMENTS

- Our company is a non-smoking environment
 - You will be required to stand, walk, crouch, climb and sit, but may be required to stand for extended periods of time
 - Dexterity of hands and fingers to carry items, operate a computer keyboard, mouse, power tools and to handle other equipment
 - Ability to lift and transport moderately heavy equipment (up to 50 pounds)
 - The noise level in the work environment is usually moderate
 - Although most work is performed inside, occasional outside activities are subject to seasonal temperature fluctuation
-